

Environmental

- Site remediation and redevelopment
- Permitting and approvals
- Designated substance/hazardous materials surveys
- Environmental Site Assessments (Phase 1 and 2 ESA)
- Site specific risk assessment
- Evaluation of remedial technologies
- Underground storage tank management
- Process evaluations and optimization
- Waste minimization studies

Naylor
Engineering
Associates Ltd.
CONSULTING ENGINEERS

Environmental management has become an integral part of today's business environment, whether complying with environmental legislation, assessing and managing environmental liabilities as part of a property transfer, or developing environmentally sound business practices. Our consulting team of engineers, environmental scientists, and technologists is ready to work with you to help identify and manage environmental risk.